Writing AC 3.1: Form Filling

In the UK, filling in a form correctly is an essential skill to ensure the accurate processing of important applications and documents.

For the Level 2 writing exam, you must take care to answer all questions correctly with close attention to detail. One small error in sections 1 and 2 can cause a fail.

There can be up to three different kinds of section:

Section 1: Personal information Name, address, phone number, gender, DOB (date of birth), employment status, marital status, nationality, reference's name (employer), their relationship to you, their contact details, etc.

Section 2: Close questions  Tick ✓, circle, underline or ~~delete~~ as appropriate

Section 3: Open questions Answer with appropriate sentences, which means:

- relevant – directly answer the question
  - coherent – make sense in context of your other responses
  - accurate – are correct grammatical sentences at level

Be careful – don't make these mistakes!

Section 1 Accuracy & order of address, precise use of capital & lower-case letters, vocabulary for job title v. occupation, qualifications, DOB, gender, status, etc.

Section 1

|                  |  |
|------------------|--|
| Full name        |  |
| Address          |  |
| Telephone number |  |
| Email address    |  |
| Date of Birth    |  |
| Occupation       |  |

Section 2 Each question might require a different type of response, as listed above:

Section 2

How would you rate your fitness? (Please delete)

Extremely fit

Moderately fit

Unfit

Section 3

- Only those sentences that directly answer the question can be counted = relevant.
- The responses need to fit in relation to other sections (i.e., if you gave a restaurant review 5 out of 5 stars earlier, your sentences should be positive about the quality) = coherent.
- Sentences need to be grammatically correct. However, to improve your chances at success in this section, you are advised to use simple sentence structures. This will play it safe and count more sentences in total giving you better chances.
- Sentences should be Level 2 (upper-intermediate) in terms of level of vocabulary, verbs use, etc., even if using simple sentence structures.
- Remember, the context is key. Read the question carefully.
- If it is an application form, you can make up details that match the question. For example, if you are asked to apply to be a PE Teacher (physical education) but you don't like sports, you can pretend to have competed in the National Championships winning a gold medal, led a volleyball team as captain, and/or earned a PGCE qualification in teaching sport if you like. That is ok.

Task 1: Fill your personal details in the table below.

Writing AC 1.1: Planning

Remember!

Advice: How to Write a Good Plan

1. Understand the Question

Before you start planning, ask yourself:

- Who am I writing to?
- What type of text is it? (e.g. letter, article, report)
- What do I need to include?

Tip: Highlight or underline key words in the task.

2. Use Bullet Points or a Mind Map

- Don't write full sentences yet.
- Just jot down the main points you want to include.
- Use 3–5 bullet points for ideas.

3. Decide the Structure

Think about paragraphs:

- Introduction: Say what the text is about
- Main points: One paragraph for each idea
- Conclusion (if needed): Final advice or summary

Use a simple layout:

Intro → Idea 1 → Idea 2 → Idea 3 → Conclusion

What are bullet points?

- Point 1
- Point 2
- Point 3
- Point 4

4. Add Examples or Details

In your plan, write short notes like:

- “Join library – free – meet people”

- “Park – walk dog – good for kids”

This will help you write more clearly and stay focused.

5. Check for Purpose and Tone

Ask yourself:

- Should it sound formal (e.g. letter of complaint)?
- Or friendly (e.g. advice article)?

Make sure your plan matches the tone.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to complain about a very disappointing train journey I experienced on 10th June 2025. I travelled on the 10:15 service from Manchester Piccadilly to Leeds, which was delayed by over two hours.

There were several issues during the journey. Firstly, there were no clear announcements or updates about the delay, and passengers were left confused and frustrated. Secondly, the toilet facilities on the train were out of order, which caused serious inconvenience on such a long and delayed journey.

Due to the delay, I missed an important job interview in Leeds. I had planned the journey carefully to arrive in plenty of time, but the disruption caused unnecessary stress and wasted both time and money.

I would like a full refund for my ticket and an apology for the poor service. I also hope that in future, your company will improve communication with passengers during delays.

Please contact me at the above address or by email at [your.email@example.com].

Yours faithfully,

Task 3: Read the Task 3 article below and write a plan.

Moving to a new area can be exciting but also a little stressful. If you've just arrived in Riverside, Cardiff, here are some tips to help you settle in and feel at home.

First, get to know your local area. Riverside is close to the city centre and Cardiff Castle, so it's easy to explore on foot. There's a lovely park by the River Taff and a regular farmers' market on Sundays where you can buy fresh food and meet local people.

Second, make use of local services. The Riverside Library is a great place to borrow books, use the internet, and find information about events and courses. There are also community centres that offer English classes, advice sessions, and activities for families.

Third, try to meet people. You could join a local group, such as a walking club or a cooking class. Many people in Riverside are from different countries, so it's a friendly and multicultural place where it's easy to make new friends.

Finally, don't be afraid to ask for help. Whether it's a neighbour or a shop assistant, most people are happy to give directions or advice.

With time, you'll feel confident and comfortable in your new community. Welcome to Riverside!

Planning 4

Task 4: Choose one of the following Task 3 questions and write a plan below:

1. Write an article giving advice to someone who wants to learn English in the UK.
What should they do to improve their English outside the classroom?

---
2. Write an article giving advice to someone starting their first job in the UK.
Include tips about communication, timekeeping, and workplace culture.

---
3. Write an article giving advice to a young person about how to stay safe and happy online.
Mention social media, online privacy, and screen time.

Writing AC 2.1: Purpose

Task 2 Writing Question (Formal Email)

Task 1: Read the exam question and email below then answer the following questions.

You are concerned about the amount of rubbish in the local parks. Write a formal email to a newspaper explaining the problem and saying what you think should be done.

(Write at least 220 words.)

To: editor@cardiffvoice.co.uk

Subject: Concern About Rubbish in Local Parks

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my concern about the increasing amount of rubbish in our local parks in the Roath area. I believe this issue is not only damaging the environment, but it is also affecting the health and well-being of local residents.

Over the past few months, I have noticed large amounts of litter left on the grass, in the playgrounds, and along walking paths. This includes plastic bottles, takeaway containers, and even broken glass.

Unfortunately, the bins are often overflowing or not emptied regularly, which makes the problem worse. Many local families and children use these parks for exercise and relaxation. It is disappointing to see such beautiful spaces being treated with disrespect. I strongly believe that more should be done to keep our parks clean and safe for everyone.

Therefore, I would like to suggest more frequent bin collections, the installation of larger waste and recycling bins, and clear signs reminding people to dispose of their rubbish responsibly. Community clean-up events and school education programmes could also help raise awareness.

Thank you for your attention. I hope your newspaper can highlight this issue and help encourage positive change in our community.

Yours sincerely,
Aisha Khan
Cardiff resident

Comprehension Questions: Formal Email Style

1. Who is the email addressed to?
2. Why is it important to include the recipient's email address and a subject line?
3. What is the purpose of the email?
4. Which two phrases show that this is a formal email?
5. How does the writer open and close the email?
6. What suggestions does the writer make to solve the problem?
7. Why is it important to include a subject line in a formal email?
8. What is the difference between "Yours sincerely" and "Yours faithfully"? Which one is used here, and why?
9. What could you suggest if you were writing your own version of this email?

Task 2: Now write your own version of the email using your local area. Use the structure from the example as a model.

(1 word – achievements)

Finally, stay _____. Learning takes time, but every step you take brings you closer to your goals.

(1 word – means “positive and hopeful”)

1. What is the purpose of the article?
2. Is the tone formal or friendly? Give an example.
3. What advice would you give to someone who feels demotivated in class?
4. Can you think of a small goal to set this week?

Now write your own version of the article. Give it a title and include three useful tips for staying motivated. Use the structure and vocabulary from the gap-fill to help you.

2.1 Essay Style Article

Write an article giving your opinion on this statement:

“Young people spend too much time on screens and do not spend enough time outdoors.”

Give reasons and examples to support your view. (Write approx. 220 words)

Part A: Read the Paragraphs (A–D)

They are in the wrong order. Match each one to its correct place in the article (Introduction, Point 1, Point 2, or Conclusion).

Paragraph A

In my opinion, it's not about removing screens completely, but about finding a healthy balance. Parents, schools, and communities can help by organising outdoor activities and encouraging screen-free time.

Paragraph B

On one hand, screens are a big part of everyday life. Teenagers often use them for studying, staying in touch with friends, or relaxing after school. Many young people also use apps to learn languages, create music, or develop skills. Not all screen time is bad.

Paragraph C

To conclude, screens are here to stay, but it's important that young people are also given time and space to enjoy life outdoors.

Paragraph D

In today's digital world, it is true that many young people spend a lot of time using screens – whether it's mobile phones, tablets, or gaming consoles. But does this mean they are no longer spending time outdoors? I believe the answer is more complicated than a simple “yes” or “no.”

---

Part B: Match Each Paragraph to Its Role

| Paragraph | Role in Article   |
|-----------|-------------------|
| D         | Introduction      |
| B         | First main point  |
| A         | Second main point |
| C         | Conclusion        |

---

Part C: Follow-Up Questions

1. What is the writer's overall opinion on the topic?
2. Does the writer consider both sides of the argument? Give one example.
3. Find two linking words or phrases used in the article.
4. How does the article try to give advice or solutions?
5. How is this article different from a letter or an email in terms of tone and structure?
6. How does the writer give their own opinion?
7. Why is it important to use paragraphs in this type of writing?
8. If you wrote your own version of this article, would you agree or disagree? Why?

Writing AC 2.2: Register

What does “register” refer to in the use of English language?

Language register in English is the scale of formality we use when we write and speak.

We use different language registers for different types of writing, just as we speak differently to different people.

What Is Register?

Register is the level of formality you use in speaking or writing.

You choose formal or informal language depending on:

- Who you are speaking or writing to
- The purpose of the communication
- The situation (e.g. job interview vs chatting with a friend)

Formal Language (used in emails/letters to a company, job applications, complaints, articles, reports)

- Polite and professional
- Uses full sentences and correct grammar
- No slang
- Avoid contractions (e.g. I am not I'm). Some are ok in formal emails but not letters.
- More serious tone

Examples:

- ✓ I would like to express my concern.
- ✓ I am writing to request further information.
- ✓ Thank you for your assistance.

Informal Language (used in texts to friends, casual emails, messages, personal writing)

- Relaxed and friendly
- Uses everyday words, contractions, and sometimes slang
- Can include emojis or abbreviations

Examples:

- ✓ Hey! Just wanted to ask you something.
  - ✓ I'm not sure what's going on.
  - ✓ Thanks a lot!

Task 1: Identify the Register

Write F for Formal or I for Informal.

1. Could you please send me the details as soon as possible? ____
  2. What's up? Long time no see! ____
  3. I am writing to apply for the position advertised. ____
  4. Can you give me a hand with this? ____
  5. Yours sincerely, ____
  6. Cheers! ____

Task 2: Match the Sentences

Match the informal sentences (1–5) with their formal equivalents (A–E).

| Informal Sentences             | Formal Equivalents                           |
|--------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| 1. I need some info.           | A. I am sorry to hear that.                  |
| 2. Sorry to hear that.         | B. I would be grateful if you could help.    |
| 3. Can you help me out?        | C. I would like to request some information. |
| 4. Thanks a lot.               | D. I appreciate your support.                |
| 5. I'm writing to ask about... | E. I am writing to enquire about...          |

Task 3: Rewrite the Sentences

Rewrite the informal sentences in a more formal way.

1. I wanna know when the class starts.
_____
2. Can you send me the stuff?
_____
3. I'm not happy with this.
_____

Work with a partner or in a small group. Discuss:

- When do you use formal language in your life?
- When do you use informal language?
- Why is it important to choose the right register?

Choose one writing task and write it in the correct register:

- Write a formal email to your tutor asking for help with your homework
- Write an informal email to a friend telling them about your weekend

[illegible]

Writing AC 2.2: Tenses

In the Level 2 writing exam you must show that you can write in a range of past, present and future tenses in at least seven sentences. Try to always include a range of tenses if possible.

Here is a quick summary of the main tenses:

Simple Tenses

✓ Present Simple: I go to college every day.

✓ Past Simple: I went to the park yesterday.

Continuous Tenses

✓ Present Continuous: I am studying for my exam.

✓ Past Continuous: I was watching TV when you called.

Perfect Tenses

✓ Present Perfect: I have finished my homework.

✓ Present Perfect Continuous: I have been playing tennis for 5 years.

✓ Past Perfect Continuous: I had been painting the room for 3 days before I realised it was the wrong colour.

✓ Past Perfect: I remembered I had left my wallet at home.

Future Tenses

- ✓ Future with 'will': I will visit my friend tomorrow.
- ✓ Future with 'going to': I am going to cook dinner tonight.
- ✓ Present Continuous for Future: I am having my hair cut tomorrow.
- ✓ Future Perfect: I will have completed the project by Friday.

Task 1: Identify the Tense

Read each sentence. Write which tenses are used. (e.g. Present Simple, Past Simple, Future 'will', etc.). There may be more than one in each sentence.

1. She is watching a film right now. _____
2. We visited the museum last Saturday. _____
3. They have just arrived. _____
4. He had already left when you called. _____
5. I will call you later. _____
6. He goes to the gym every Monday. _____

8. He _____ (wait) for 2 hours when she arrived.
9. I _____ (finish) all my exams by the end of June.
10. She _____ (have) a bath when the doorbell rang.

Task 3: Write Your Own Sentences

Write one sentence for each tense:

1. Present Simple:

---

2. Present Continuous:

---

3. Present Perfect:

---

4. Past Simple:

---

5. Past Continuous:

---

6. Past Perfect:

---

7. Past Perfect Continuous:

---

8. Present Perfect:

---

9. Future (will):

---

10. Future (going to):

---

11. Present continuous for future:

---

12. Future Perfect:

---

Writing AC 2.2 Passive Voice

Remember all tenses can be written in both the active and the passive voice.

Present

| Verb tense         | Active              | Passive             |
|--------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| Simple             | I write             | It is written       |
| Continuous         | I am writing        | It is being written |
| Perfect            | I have written      | It has been written |
| Perfect Continuous | I have been writing | (not recommended)   |

Past

| Verb tense         | Active             | Passive              |
|--------------------|--------------------|----------------------|
| Simple             | I wrote            | It was written       |
| Continuous         | I was writing      | It was being written |
| Perfect            | I had written      | It had been written  |
| Perfect Continuous | I had been writing | (not recommended)    |

Future

| Verb tense         | Active                   | Passive                   |
|--------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------|
| Simple             | I will write             | It will be written        |
| Continuous         | I will be writing        | It will be being written  |
| Perfect            | I will have written      | It will have been written |
| Perfect Continuous | I will have been writing | (not recommended)         |

Task 1: Complete the sentences using the prompts: active.

1. She _____ (to ask, present perfect) for additional support in learning.
2. They _____ (to listen, past continuous) to music on their road trip.
3. We _____ (to study, future perfect continuous) Spanish for 6 months by the time we go travelling to Latin America.
4. One of my friends _____ (present perfect continuous) travelling in South-East Asia.

5. My colleagues _____ (to complete, future perfect) a collaborative project by the end of next month.

Task 2: Complete the sentences using the prompts: passive.

1. Caerphilly Castle _____ (to build, past simple) in 1290.
2. The course _____ (to complete, future perfect) by 2027.
3. The match _____ (to watch, present continuous) by millions of viewers.
4. It _____ (to show, present perfect) that apprenticeships are popular today.
5. The student _____ (to nominate, past perfect) for a national award
By the time she graduated.

Writing AC 2.3: The Structure of a Paragraph

What is a paragraph?

A paragraph is a group of sentences about a single topic. A paragraph explains the writer's main idea (most important idea) about the topic and supports it. At Level 2, a paragraph should be between four and six sentences long, depending on the task. Remember to leave a line between paragraphs:

Follow these rules for perfect paragraphs.

- The paragraph must contain a topic sentence (a sentence that tells the reader what the paragraph is about).
- All other sentences should develop the topic sentence by giving further detail and evidence to support the idea.
- All the sentences within a paragraph should be about the same person, place, time or topic.
- The sentences should flow smoothly and logically.
- A concluding sentence may be added but is not essential.
- When the person, place, time or topic changes, you should start a new paragraph
- Every new paragraph should start on a new line.

Task 1: Read the following sentences. Underline the topic sentence, circle the concluding sentence and count the number of supporting sentences.

Paragraph 1

The weather in the UK is known for being unpredictable. In one day, it can be sunny in the morning, rainy in the afternoon, and cloudy by the evening. Because of this, many people carry an umbrella or a raincoat, just in case. Winters are usually cold and wet, while summers can be warm but short. Although the weather can be frustrating, it is a common topic of conversation among British people. Many visitors are surprised by how quickly it can change. Overall, the British weather is something everyone learns to live with.

Number of supporting sentences: _____

Paragraph 2

Public transport in the UK is used by millions of people every day. The most popular types of public transport are buses, trains, and the underground in London. Many people use buses for short journeys around towns and cities. Trains are faster and are used to travel between cities, although they can be expensive. In London, the Underground (also called the Tube) is a quick way to travel around the city. Public transport is convenient but sometimes delayed. In general, public transport helps people travel easily across the UK.

Number of supporting sentences: _____

Paragraph 3

British food has changed a lot over the years. Traditional meals like fish and chips or roast dinners are still popular with many families. However, the UK is now home to many different cultures, and this has influenced the food. You can find Indian curries, Chinese noodles, Italian pasta, and many other international dishes. People enjoy trying new foods, especially in big cities like London, Manchester, and Birmingham. As a result, British food today is a mix of old traditions and modern tastes.

Number of supporting sentences: _____

Task 2: The following sentences are parts of a paragraph, but they are not in the correct order. Number the sentences and identify them as:

- 1. topic sentence
- 2. supporting sentences
- 3. concluding sentence

- Sports are also popular, especially football, rugby, and cricket.
- For example, some people like to go for walks in the countryside or along the coast.
- Overall, there are many ways to enjoy free time in the UK.
- However, others prefer watching TV, reading books, or playing video games at home.
- People in the UK enjoy a variety of free time activities.
- Furthermore, many people also visit pubs or cafes to relax with friends.
- What people do in their free time depends on their age, interests, and where they live.

Writing AC 2.3 Topic Sentences

A topic sentence, is the most important sentence in a paragraph. The topic sentence is usually the first sentence in a paragraph - although it doesn't always have to be. However, this is the clearest way to present your points.

Purpose of the Topic Sentence

A topic sentence tells what the rest of the paragraph is about. All sentences after it have to give more information about the sentence, prove it by offering facts, examples or details.

Writing topic sentences (and controlling ideas)

When writing the topic sentence, try to state the main point of the paragraph as clearly and as accurately as possible. There are two parts to every topic sentence: a topic and a controlling idea.

- The topic is placed at the start of the sentence. It states the subject (topic) of the paragraph. It is what the paragraph is about.
- The controlling idea 'controls' everything else in the paragraph; it indicates what you want to say about the topic. It shows the direction the paragraph will take.

e.g. "Social media has made communication easier in recent years."

Topic = social media    Controlling idea = it has made communication easier in recent years

Task 1: Read the following three topic sentences. Each one has the same topic but a different controlling idea. Circle the topic and identify the controlling idea in each.

1. Life in the UK can be expensive, especially in big cities like London.
2. Life in the UK offers many cultural experiences, such as museums, festivals, and historic sites.
3. Life in the UK can be challenging for newcomers who are learning the language and adapting to a new system.

Task 2: Identify the topic and the controlling idea in each of the following topic sentences. Circle the topic and underline the controlling idea.

Topic Sentences

A topic sentence is a statement that tells what your paragraph will be about.

1. Public transport in London is efficient but can be very crowded during rush hour.
2. Mobile phones have changed the way people communicate and spend their time.
3. Learning English opens up more job opportunities for people in the UK.
4. Fast food is popular because it is cheap and convenient, but it is often unhealthy.
5. Recycling helps protect the environment by reducing waste and saving energy.

Task 3: Complete the topic sentences by adding a controlling idea.

1. Public transport in the UK _____.
2. Learning English _____.
3. The weather in Wales _____.
4. Watching the UK news _____.
5. Shopping in local supermarkets _____.
6. Finding a job in the UK _____.
7. Going to the GP _____.
8. Living in a shared house _____.
9. Celebrating British festivals _____.
10. Using social media _____.

Task 4: Choose the best topic sentence for each paragraph.

Paragraph 1

Many people use buses to travel to work, school, or shops. Trains are faster and are often used for longer journeys, such as going from one city to another. In big cities like London, the Underground helps people move around quickly. Although delays can happen, most people find public transport useful and affordable.

Which sentence is the best topic sentence?

- A) The UK has many good restaurants in big cities.
- B) Public transport in the UK is a common way for people to travel.
- C) Driving a car is the best way to travel in the countryside.

Paragraph 2

Many people enjoy roast dinners, especially on Sundays. Fish and chips are another traditional favourite, often eaten at the seaside. In addition to traditional food, British people also enjoy dishes from around the world, like Indian curries and Italian pizza. The UK is home to many cultures, and this is reflected in the food people eat every day.

Which sentence is the best topic sentence?

- A) Food in the UK includes both traditional and international meals.
- B) Indian restaurants are popular in the UK.
- C) British people eat a lot of fast food every week.

Paragraph 3

In summer, people like to visit parks, beaches, and festivals. In autumn, the leaves change colour and the weather becomes cooler. Winter is often cold and wet, and people stay indoors more. Spring brings flowers and longer days, which many people enjoy.

Which sentence is the best topic sentence?

- A) British people don't like the weather.

B) Every season in the UK has something different to offer.

C) Spring is the best time to go on holiday.

Paragraph 4

Many students want to improve their English to get a better job. Some people study English to help their children with schoolwork. Others need it for daily tasks like shopping, travelling, or visiting the doctor. Speaking and understanding English can make life much easier in the UK.

Which sentence is the best topic sentence?

A) People study English for many different reasons.

B) Studying grammar is very important.

C) The English language is very difficult to learn.

Paragraph 5

In large cities, there are often many job opportunities, especially in shops, restaurants, and offices. However, competition for jobs can be high, and some roles require good English skills or previous experience. In smaller towns, there may be fewer jobs available, but some people prefer the quieter lifestyle. Many jobseekers use websites, job centres, or agencies to find work.

Which sentence is the best topic sentence?

A) Looking for work in the UK depends on where you live and your skills.

B) Many people want to become doctors or lawyers.

C) Everyone in the UK earns a high salary.

Writing AC 2.3 Supporting Sentences

The supporting sentences of a paragraph develop the main idea you presented in the topic sentence. They are in the middle of a paragraph – after the topic sentence, and before a concluding sentence.

Task 1: Read the two paragraphs below. Which one is a better paragraph? Why?

Paragraph 1

Learning English can help people find better jobs in the UK. Many employers want workers who can speak and understand English well, especially in customer service and office jobs. Also, English skills are often needed to complete job applications, attend interviews, and follow instructions at work.

Therefore, people who improve their English can apply for more jobs and may be offered higher pay or promotion. For this reason, many people attend English classes to improve their chances in the job market.

Paragraph 2

Learning English can help people find better jobs in the UK. In fact, many people move to the UK for a better life. This may be because The UK has several different types of weather in each season. For example, it could be rainy, windy and sunny at the same time. Furthermore, some people go to college to study. Studying English at college can be a very rewarding experience and people can improve their skills there. Overall, it is also important to eat healthy food and exercise

1. Better paragraph _____

2. Why?

Task 2: Write three supporting ideas for the following topic sentences.

Writing AC 2.3 The Concluding Sentence

Some paragraphs end in a concluding sentence, but they are not necessary for every type of paragraph.

Depending on your writing task (formal email/letter, article) and its purpose (to advise, complain, give your opinion, discuss pros and cons etc.) there are six ways to write a concluding sentence:

1. Restate (paraphrase) the topic sentence.
2. Summarise the key points in the paragraph.
3. Offer a final thought – give your opinion.
4. Make a prediction based on the details of the paragraph.
5. Make a recommendation based on the details of the paragraph.
6. Transition into the next paragraph.

Task 1: Read the paragraph below. Look at the list of concluding sentences (a - f), and decide what type is being used from the list above (numbers 1-6).

Learning English can help people live more confidently in the UK. This is because many people need English to talk to doctors, teachers, or neighbours. Furthermore, It also helps with finding work, using public services, and making new friends. In fact, people who speak English well often feel more independent and included in society. For this reason, many people take English classes or practise speaking every day.

Concluding Sentences (One for Each Type)

- a) Being able to speak English clearly helps people feel more confident and in control of their lives in the UK.
- b) In short, English helps with work, daily life, and building social connections in the UK.
- c) In my opinion, learning English is one of the most important steps to a better life in a new country.
- d) As more people continue to learn English, they will find it easier to succeed and feel part of the community.
- e) For anyone living in the UK, I would recommend joining an English class to improve your confidence and communication skills.
- f) Another important part of living in the UK is understanding how to use the healthcare system.

Task 2: Now write a paragraph on a topic from the list below. Make sure you include a topic sentence, supporting sentences and a concluding sentence.

- Public transport in the UK
- Learning English
- Weather in Britain
- Shopping in local supermarkets
- Finding a job in the UK
- Living in a shared house
- Celebrating British festivals

Writing AC 2.3: Discourse Markers

Linking phrases/Transitional Words / Discourse Markers/Signpost language - different terms for the same things.

To achieve assessment criterion 2.3, you must write using discourse markers. This gives your writing better structure and flow for the reader.

Discourse markers

Discourse markers can help you guide the reader through your writing and make sure the order is clear and flows well. These are small words or phrases that help the reader follow your argument, understand the relationship between your ideas and predict what's going to come next.

Task 1: Read the following paragraphs and answer the following questions:

- Which is the better paragraph and why?
- What makes the paragraph different?
- Highlight the words/phrases which show the better paragraph.

1. Cardiff Castle is in the centre of Cardiff. It has a long history. It was originally a Roman fort. It became a Norman castle. The castle was used by many important people. Today it is open to the public. You can visit the rooms. You can walk on the castle walls. It is a popular tourist attraction. Many people go there every year.

2. Cardiff Castle is located in the centre of Cardiff. To begin with, it was built as a Roman fort. Later, it became a Norman castle. Over the centuries, it was used by many important people. Today, the castle is open to the public. For example, you can explore the beautifully decorated rooms. In addition, you can walk along the castle walls. As a result, it is one of the city's most popular tourist attractions. Every year, many people visit to learn more about its fascinating history.

Discourse markers show the relationship between paragraphs or sections of a text or speech. They provide greater cohesion (unity) by making it more explicit or signalling how ideas relate to one another. They identify when:

- a) Ideas are being listed
- b) Additional ideas are being introduced
- c) The next idea is working in contrast with the previous idea
- d) Examples are being given
- e) Showing cause and effect
- f) The writer wants to emphasis an idea
- g) A paragraph or text is ending

Task 2: Each paragraph is missing discourse markers. Read the texts carefully and add the missing discourse markers.

1. Sports

____, playing sports is a great way to stay healthy. ____ it helps to reduce stress. ____ many people do not find the time to exercise. ____ making sport a regular part of your routine can improve your physical and mental health. ____ some people prefer individual sports, others enjoy team activities. ____ sports are a fun way to meet new people and stay fit.

- a. overall
- b. while
- c. nevertheless
- d. however
- e. in addition
- f. firstly

2. Leisure time

People spend their free time in different ways. ____ some enjoy quiet activities like reading, others prefer going out with friends. ____ it is important to have a balance between work and relaxation. ____ doing something enjoyable can help you feel more motivated. ____ it can improve your overall well-being. ____ everyone should find time for leisure in their busy lives.

- a. for example
- b. while
- c. therefore
- d. in conclusion
- e. furthermore

3. Recycling

Recycling helps to protect the environment. ____ it reduces the amount of waste in landfills. ____ it saves energy and natural resources. ____ some people still throw recyclable items in the bin. ____ more awareness is needed. ____ if we all recycle properly, we can make a big difference.

- a. however
- b. overall
- c. for instance
- d. as a result
- e. furthermore

4. Reading

Reading for fun has many benefits. ____ it improves your vocabulary and writing skills. ____ it helps you to relax. ____ some people say they do not have time to read. ____ making time for reading every day can have a positive effect. ____ reading is a cheap and enjoyable hobby.

- a. in short
- b. in addition
- c. even so
- d. firstly
- e. however

5. Social media

Social media is used by millions of people. ____ it helps people stay connected. ____ it allows users to share news and ideas quickly. ____ there are also some negative effects. ____ people can become addicted to scrolling online. ____ it is important to use social media responsibly.

- a. for example
- b. on the one hand
- c. moreover
- d. on the other hand
- e. therefore

Task 3: Read the following paragraphs and fill in the most appropriate discourse markers in each paragraph. When you finish, compare with a partner? Are they the same?

1. Good students have three important qualities. _____ they attend all the classes regularly. When they are in class, they also participate in class activities and discussions. _____, they study really hard. They have a regular study plan. They do homework and revise newly learned grammar points and vocabulary items regularly. _____, they are always motivated and ready to learn. Because they have set certain goals, they try to motivate themselves to be successful all the time. They never give up. _____, a good student attends classes regularly, studies really hard and is always motivated.

2. There are several disadvantages of using mobile phones in class. _____, mobile phones distract students. Students may text their friends, play games or browse the Internet during class, so they don't pay attention to their teachers. _____, when their phones ring or vibrate, it also distracts the teacher and other students in class. It disturbs the class atmosphere and learning. _____, students may use their mobile phones during quizzes or in-class writing assignments. When they have Internet access, they may look up answers on the Internet. _____, using mobile phones in class has some negative effects.

3. Learning another language opens many doors. _____ it can help you find a better job. _____ it allows you to speak with people from other cultures. _____ if you are living abroad, it can help you to settle into a new country. _____ learning a new language takes time and effort. _____ the benefits are worth it. _____ it can improve your travel experiences and boost your confidence.

Task 4: Write the discourse markers from paragraphs 1-6 correctly in the chart below.

| Time             | Examples | Listing/adding       | Contrast |
|------------------|----------|----------------------|----------|
|                  |          |                      |          |
| Cause and Effect | Emphasis | Summary / conclusion |          |
|                  |          |                      |          |

Task 5: Compare your chart with your partner's. Look online. Can you add more discourse markers to the chart above?

Task 6: Fill the gaps below with the words/phrases from the box.

additionally   on the positive side   for example   in conclusion   especially although   however   while

Working Abroad: A Life-Changing Experience?

In recent years, many people have chosen to work abroad. _____ this decision can bring great benefits, it may also involve serious challenges. This essay will explore both the advantages and disadvantages of working in a foreign country.

_____, working abroad can help people develop new skills and experiences. It often improves language ability and cultural understanding. _____, if someone works in another country, they may learn how to adapt to different ways of thinking and working. _____, some jobs abroad offer better salaries and career progression.

_____, there are also disadvantages to consider. People might feel lonely or homesick, _____ if they are far from their family. It can also be difficult to adjust to a new culture or climate. In some cases, workers have been treated unfairly or given less support than locals. If they had researched the country better, they might have avoided some problems.

_____, working abroad can be a rewarding but challenging experience. _____ it may help personal and professional growth, it can also be stressful and isolating. In my opinion, it is important to plan carefully and be open-minded in order to succeed in another country.

Writing AC 2.4 Simple Sentences

To achieve AC 2.4, you must use a range of simple, compound and complex sentences.

What is a simple sentence?

One piece of information with a full stop at the end. A simple sentence consists of only one clause. It has a subject and only one verb. It must be a complete thought.

I study English.

Subject + Verb + Object

It can also be referred to as an independent clause.

1. Simple sentences can list items:
e.g. I speak English, French and Spanish.
2. Simple sentences can have a compound subject:
e.g. Khaled and Asim went into town.
3. Simple sentences can include place and time:
e.g. I study ESOL at Cardiff and Vale College on Mondays and Wednesdays every week.
4. Simple sentences can include all other parts of speech:
e.g. The lonely old man slowly walked down the long, winding path through the dark forest.
5. Simple sentences can include coordinating conjunctions and, but and or:
e.g. I love fish and chips.
e.g. I love fish but not chips.
e.g. Would you like fish or chips?

Simple sentences cannot include more than one verb, subordinating conjunctions, dependent or subordinate clauses.

Task 1: Develop the following simple sentences so they include:

1. Listing items
At the weekend he plays football.
_____
2. Compound subjects
Maryna didn't finish her homework.
_____
3. Place and time
I went to the cinema
_____

- The dog sat on the grass

- She exercises

1. Listing items
2. Compound subjects
3. Place and time
4. Other parts of speech (articles, adjectives, adverbs, prepositions)
5. Conjunctions and, but and or
6. Different tenses

[illegible]

Writing AC 2.4 Compound Sentences

A compound sentence has at least two independent clauses, and they are separated by a comma and a coordinating conjunction:

independent clause + , coordinating conjunction + independent clause

See how these simple sentences (independent clauses) become a compound sentence:

Simple Sentences

I study English.

Subject + Verb + Object

My wife studies French.

Subject + Verb + Object

Compound Sentence

Two pieces of information balanced either side of a coordinating conjunction.

I study English, but my wife studies French.

Subject + Verb + Object + , Coordinating conjunction + Subject + Verb + Object

What are independent clauses?

An independent clause contains a subject and a verb. It can stand by itself as a sentence.

Task 1: Which of the following sentences are simple sentences, and which ones are compound sentences?

- a) The presentation was interesting but very long. _____
- b) The presentation was interesting, but it was also very long. _____
- c) I want to be successful, and I want to be famous. _____
- d) I want to be successful and famous. _____

Task 2: Identify which of the sentences are simple, and which are compound.

- 1. I ate lunch, but I skipped breakfast. _____
- 2. I want to go to France but not this year. _____
- 3. I want to travel to Barcelona and Madrid. _____
- 4. The moon is bright, and the stars are out. _____
- 5. So far, so good. _____

6. I woke up late, so I missed my bus. _____
7. I'm going to London for a week or so. _____
8. I revised for the test, yet I still failed. _____
9. I haven't eaten, nor have I drunk anything. _____
10. I must finish this assignment for university. _____
11. I didn't go to work yesterday, for I was ill. _____
12. He eats nothing but chicken and chips. _____

Please note: Some conjunctions are also other parts of speech.

Task 3: Which part of speech are the words in bold?

1. For is both a conjunction and preposition.

I'm going to Manchester for a week or so. _____

I didn't go shopping yesterday, for I was tired. _____

2. But is a conjunction and preposition.

I ate breakfast, but I skipped lunch. _____

He eats nothing but chicken and chips. _____

3. Yet is both a conjunction and an adverb.

I was up early, yet I still missed the bus. _____

Have you done it yet? _____

4. So is both a conjunction and an adverb.

So far, so good. _____

I woke up late, so I missed my bus. _____

Coordinating conjunctions

There are 7 coordinating conjunctions you can use when connecting two independent clauses. FANBOYS is an acronym to help us remember the 7 coordinating conjunctions.

Task 4: Which conjunction does each letter represent? Write it on the line.

F _____
 A _____
 N _____
 B _____
 O _____
 Y _____
 S _____

Each coordinating conjunction is used differently and has a different purpose. Each creates a different relationship between clauses.

Task 5: Match the purposes in the box with the correct coordinating conjunction in the chart.

|                             |                    |                  |                |
|-----------------------------|--------------------|------------------|----------------|
| To show contrast            | To add information | To give a choice | To show result |
| To add negative information | To show reason     | To show contrast |                |

|    | Conjunction | Purpose | Example                                                     |
|----|-------------|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. | For         |         | I went to bed early, for I was exhausted.            |
| 2. | And         |         | I went to bed late, and I got up late.               |
| 3. | Nor*        |         | *I didn't go to bed late, nor did I get up late.     |
| 4. | But         |         | I went to bed late, but I woke up early.             |
| 5. | Or          |         | I might go to bed early, or I may stay up late.      |
| 6. | Yet         |         | I went to bed early, yet I am still tired.           |
| 7. | So          |         | I went to bed early, so I have lots of energy today. |

(*after "nor" in a compound sentence the word order changes to a question word order)

Task 6: Match the first independent clause with the second to make a compound sentence.

- |                                         |                                  |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. I wanted to go to the beach,         | for she ate all the cakes!       |
| 2. I will mow the lawn today,           | and my sister plays football.    |
| 3. She is practising grammar,           | nor is it a member of NATO.      |
| 4. They went to the supermarket,        | or I will do it tomorrow.        |
| 5. I play tennis,                       | yet they forgot to buy tea bags. |
| 6. She must have been starving,         | but it started raining.          |
| 7. Serbia is not in the European Union, | so she should pass her exams.    |

Task 7: Join the pairs of simple sentences together to make compound sentences. Choose carefully which of the FANBOYS conjunctions you will use.

|     |     |     |     |    |     |    |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|----|-----|----|
| for | and | nor | but | or | yet | so |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|----|-----|----|

Owen went to the shops. He bought some bananas.

---

Mo doesn't like playing football. He doesn't like to play basketball.

---

Michelle is great at all sports. She is unable to swim.

---

---

You didn't eat your mushrooms. You didn't finish your broccoli.

---

---

You must remember your student ID card. You cannot enter the building.

The computer had a virus. I lost all my data.

Eric walked slowly. He had hurt his ankle.

Task 8: Write 7 of your own compound sentences. Use all seven coordinating conjunctions and punctuate each sentence correctly.

Writing AC 2.4 Complex Sentences

What is a complex sentence?

A complex sentence has a main (independent) clause and a subordinate (dependent) clause, which are connected by a subordinating conjunction.

Two or more pieces of information. One relies on the other(s) to make sense.

I am trying my best although I find English grammar difficult.

independent clause + subordinate conjunction + dependent clause

In the complex sentence example above, the independent clause comes first. A clause is a group of words that has a subject and verb. An independent clause can stand alone as a complete sentence.

✓ I am trying my best.

A dependent clause does not express a complete thought, so it is not a sentence. It cannot stand alone and must be used with an independent clause.

✗ Although I find English grammar difficult.

The independent clause and the dependent clause are interchangeable; either can come first. In the complex sentence below, the dependent clause comes first.

Although I find English grammar difficult, I am trying my best.

subordinate conjunction + dependent clause, + independent clause

Dependent clauses always start with a subordinating conjunction.

If the dependent clause comes first, place a comma between it and the independent clause.

Task 1: Read each clause in the chart. Discuss with your partner and decide if each is independent or dependent.

|                             | Independent clause | Dependent clause |
|-----------------------------|--------------------|------------------|
| 1. When he arrived          |                    |                  |
| 2. She enjoys reading books |                    |                  |
| 3. If you had studied more  |                    |                  |
| 4. After the storm passed   |                    |                  |

|                                   |  |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|--|
| 5. You could have passed the exam |  |  |
| 6. The sun came out               |  |  |
| 7. The party was in full swing    |  |  |
| 8. That are set in the past       |  |  |

Task 2: Identify which of the sentences are simple, compound, and complex sentences.

1. a. Rhys looked at Claire. _____
- b. Rhys looked at Claire, but Claire did not look at Rhys. _____
- c. Rhys and Claire looked at each other when they met. _____
2. a. Tom studies Arabic, and James speaks Chinese. _____
- b. Tom met James when they were at university. _____
- c. James studied Chinese and spoke it in Beijing. _____
3. a. Hugh felt depressed, so he stayed in bed. _____
- b. Hugh and Seren argued today. _____
- c. Hugh is sad because he argued with Seren. _____
4. a. Satoshi bowed to Noriko when they met. _____
- b. Satoshi and Noriko bowed to each other. _____
- c. Noriko introduced herself, and Satoshi bowed. _____

Task 3: Read the paragraphs below. Identify the simple, compound and complex sentences.

Paragraph 1

Welsh is one of the oldest living languages in Europe. ( ) It is spoken by thousands of people in Wales today. ( ) The government encourages its use in schools, so more young people are learning it. ( ) Many road signs, official documents, and TV programmes appear in both English and Welsh. ( ) Although some people find it difficult to learn, they often feel proud to speak it. ( ) Welsh is more than just a language, for it is a symbol of identity and history. ( ) When people speak Welsh, they feel connected to their roots. ( ) In some areas, it is spoken every day at home, at work, and in the community. ( ) The language is protected by law, which helps it to survive. ( ) Because of this, the future of Welsh looks bright. ( )

Paragraph 2

Wales is known as the “Land of Song.” ( ) Music plays a big part in Welsh culture. ( ) People of all ages enjoy singing, and choirs are popular in many towns and villages. ( ) One of the most important cultural events in Wales is the Eisteddfod. ( ) This is a traditional festival where people compete in music, poetry, and performance. ( ) The Eisteddfod celebrates Welsh language and talent, and it brings communities together. ( ) If you travel in Wales during the summer, you might be able to attend this exciting event. ( ) Both children and adults take part, which helps to keep the tradition alive. ( ) People wear traditional clothes, and the winning poets are given special chairs. ( ) Welsh music and festivals are really fun, and they help people feel proud of their culture. ( )

1. Number of complex sentences _____
2. Number of simple sentences _____
3. Number of compound sentences _____

Task 4: Read the following complex sentences. Highlight the conjunctions and underline the independent clauses.

1. Although many people support the proposal, some residents have raised concerns about its long-term impact on the community.
2. The manager postponed the meeting because several key staff members were unavailable.
3. If the application is not submitted on time, you may lose the opportunity to take part in the programme.
4. We decided to continue with the project even though the funding had been reduced significantly.
5. While the course offers useful content, some learners feel that the pace is too fast.
6. The government introduced new policies in order to reduce carbon emissions and promote renewable energy.
7. Unless more support is provided, small businesses may struggle to recover from the economic downturn.
8. When customers feel valued, they are more likely to return and recommend the service to others.
9. Since technology has become essential in education, teachers must adapt their methods to meet modern needs.
10. Even if the weather improves tomorrow, the event may still be cancelled due to safety concerns.

Subordinating conjunctions

Subordinating conjunctions are used to make complex sentences.

- Unlike coordinating conjunctions, there are many subordinating conjunctions.
- Subordinating conjunctions are used to connect clauses within complex sentences and to create a relationship between them.
- The role of a subordinating conjunction and the dependent clause is to establish a condition, a concession, a comparison, time, a place, or a reason for the independent clause.

1. Comparison

These words or phrases link the dependent and independent clauses by comparing the two of them:

2. John liked chicken whereas Emma preferred fish.
3. Someone must go first, whether it's you or me.

2. Contrast

These words or phrases link the dependent and independent clauses by showing a contrast between them:

- Although I'm going to school, I'd much rather stay home and watch TV.
- Sally is heading to the football match today despite the rain.

3. Condition

These connect the dependent and independent clauses by showing that the main idea relies on the supporting information:

- Unless you tidy your room, you're not going on the PlayStation.
- Peter didn't want to take the train in case it was delayed.

4. Time

These connect the two clauses together by showing a time relationship between the two of them:

- After he finished his exams, he felt relaxed and happy.
- Eden made it to the front of the queue before they ran out of food in the canteen.

5. Place

These words connect the clauses together by showing a position or place:

- The robbers hid the jewelry where nobody could ever find it.
- Wherever possible, you should avoid using single use plastic bags.

6. Reason

These words provide a reason or an explanation as to why something happened:

- Because the taxi was late, she missed her appointment.
- Robin arrived late so that he wouldn't have to see his manager.

Task 1: Look at the subordinating conjunctions in the table below. Categorise them correctly using the chart. Can you add any more that you know?

|            |                    |             |          |
|------------|--------------------|-------------|----------|
| while      | till /until        | although    | because  |
| where      | if                 | as          | whereas  |
| when       | even though        | since       | wherever |
| unless     | after              | though      | so that  |
| everywhere | provided that      | rather than | before   |
| despite    | in order that / to | once        | whether  |
| even if    | whenever           |             |          |

| Comparison | Time      | Contrast |
|------------|-----------|----------|
|            |           |          |

Writing AC 2.4 Using Sentence Variety

When you write, it's important to use a range of simple, compound and complex sentences. Using different sentences makes your writing more interesting.

Task 1: Read two paragraphs below and tick the better paragraph.

Paragraph 1

I went to a beach in The Gower. The weather was sunny. The sand was soft. The sea was blue. Many people were swimming. Some children were building sandcastles. I ate fish and chips. I drank lemonade. I saw a lifeguard. He was watching the sea. A dog was running along the sand. The waves were small. A family had a picnic. I took some photos. I sat on a towel. I read a book. I stayed for two hours. I walked back to the car. I felt tired. I had a great day. ☐

Paragraph 2

Last weekend, I visited a beautiful beach in The Gower. Although the weather forecast predicted rain, it turned out to be sunny and warm. The sand was golden and soft, so we took off our shoes and walked along the shore. While some people went swimming, others relaxed with a book or built sandcastles. In addition, I enjoyed delicious fish and chips with a cold lemonade. Afterwards, we took photos of the view because the light was perfect. Eventually, we packed up and walked back to the car. Overall, it was a peaceful and enjoyable day by the sea. ☐

Task 2: Give two reasons for your choice.

1. _____
2. _____

Task 3: Rewrite the paragraph below. Use a range of simple, compound and complex sentences. Add discourse markers, conjunctions, adverbs and adjectives to make it as interesting as possible.

My recent trip to St Fagan's Museum

I went to St Fagan's Museum last weekend. I took the bus from the city centre. The journey was short. The weather was cold. I wore a coat and hat. I arrived at the museum in the morning. I looked at the old houses. I walked through the gardens. I saw animals on a farm. I took some photos. I had lunch in the café. I bought a postcard from the shop. I enjoyed my trip. I want to go back again. The museum was interesting. It showed a lot of Welsh history.

Further Practice: Task 2 Formal letter

Writing Task: You are unhappy about the condition of your local park (rubbish, broken playground equipment, a lack of litter bins, etc.).

Write a letter to your local MP complaining about the issues and suggesting what could be done. You must write at least 220 words.

Task 1: Understanding the Model Letter. Read the model letter and answer the questions below.

Sofia Koval

3/07/25

Jo Stevens, MP
116 Albany Road
Roath
Cardiff
CF24 3RU

Dear Jo Stevens,

I am writing to express my concern about the poor condition of Roath Park in our local area. As a long-standing resident and regular visitor, I am increasingly alarmed by the state of the park, which has sadly become neglected and unpleasant for families and local residents.

Firstly, there is a serious litter problem. Rubbish is often left scattered around the park, especially near the benches and play areas. The situation is made worse by the fact that there are very few litter bins available, and those that exist are often overflowing. Secondly, much of the playground equipment is broken or unsafe. Several swings are missing seats, and one of the climbing frames has been damaged for months without repair.

This situation not only poses a safety risk for children but also discourages families from using the park. If action is not taken, the park will continue to deteriorate and could become a hotspot for antisocial behaviour.

I would like to suggest that the council carries out regular maintenance checks, installs more bins throughout the park, and repairs damaged equipment as a priority. Signs encouraging people to keep the park clean could also make a difference.

I hope you will raise this issue with the local council and support efforts to improve our community space. I would be happy to discuss this further if required.

Yours sincerely,

Sofia Koval

How to Become More Environmentally Friendly: By Charlotte Willis

Have you ever thought about how to protect our environment? Nowadays, many people are becoming more aware of environmental issues. If you want to live in a greener way, there are several simple things you can do to help protect the planet.

Firstly, reducing waste is an easy and important step. Paper, plastic, and glass can easily be recycled. Also, you should try to avoid products with too much packaging. It is also helpful to bring your own bags when shopping and to buy reusable water bottles instead of single-use ones.

Secondly, try to save energy and water at home. For example, you should switch off lights when you leave a room and unplug chargers that are not in use. Also, you should turn off your TV instead of leaving it on standby mode. Taking shorter showers is another great way to reduce water use.

In addition, using public transport such as electric buses, cycling, or walking instead of driving a car can lower pollution. Although this may not always be convenient, it has a big impact on the environment.

Of course, it is impossible to be perfect, but every small change matters. If we had known about these problems 50 years ago, we could have started to protect the planet sooner. However, by making thoughtful choices each day, we can all help to protect the Earth for future generations.

230 words.

Task 1: Highlight the topic sentences and underline the discourse markers in this text.

Task 2: Now, create a plan for this article. Think about the main idea of each paragraph. Write your plan below:

Task 3: Grammar Focus – Sentence Types Identify whether the following sentences from the article are simple, compound, or complex.

1. You can recycle paper, plastic, and glass. _____
2. Although this may not always be convenient, it has a big impact on the environment. _____
3. Taking shorter showers is another great way to reduce water use. _____
4. You should switch off lights when you leave a room, and you should unplug chargers that are not in use. _____

Task 4: Write your own examples:

- Simple: _____
- Compound: _____
- Complex: _____

Activity 4: Discussion – Agree or Disagree In pairs or small groups, discuss these statements. Use discourse markers like: “Firstly,” “However,” “In my opinion,” “On the other hand,” “Because of this,” etc.

- Everyone should try to live in an environmentally friendly way.
- Using public transport is better than driving.
- It’s too difficult to change our daily habits to help the environment.

Activity 5: Writing Extension Write a short paragraph (80–100 words) answering this question: “What is one thing you already do – or would like to start doing – to help the environment?”

Use at least:

- Two discourse markers
- One complex sentence
