

Narrative Tenses

Mark tells us about how he met his wife Julia.

Read the story and fill in the gaps using the correct form of the verb in brackets: past simple (I did) past perfect (I had done) and past continuous (I was doing).

The first time I (meet) Julia was eight years ago at a party. I'm Australian but I (spend) a few months in Britain back in 2001. I (do) some photographic work for my old friend, Harry, who I (know) for many years.

Anyway, one day in the summer, Harry and I (decide) to invite a whole group of people for a barbecue.

We (get/ready) when Julia (arrive) at the barbecue early.

I (start) talking to her and (ask) her a lot of questions. I thought we (have) a good conversation but much later, Julia (tell) me that she (hate) all the questions. I (not/tell) her that I hated the dress that she (wear)!
