

Parts of a Sentence

Always write in sentences

- 1) You don't need to use full sentences in your plan. Use notes instead.
- 2) You do get marks for using full sentences in writing exercises.
- 3) Turn your notes into full sentences when you write your answer.

A sentence must make sense on its own

- 1) Every sentence needs an action word and somebody to do it.
- 2) A verb is an action word. It tells you what happens in a sentence.

Every morning my neighbour runs to work.

This is the verb.

- 3) A sentence needs someone or something to 'do' the verb.

The machine is 'doing' the action.

The machine makes parts for cars.

- 4) Sentences can also show who or what an action is being done to.

I sold my coin collection.

The selling was 'done'
to the coin collection.

Check you have used the right article

- 1) Articles go before nouns and give you more information about the noun.
- 2) There are two types of article.
- 3) 'a' and 'an' are used for general things. Only use 'an' when the noun starts with a vowel sound.

She wants a lemon.

She wants any lemon.
He wants any orange.

He wants an orange.

'orange'
starts with a vowel sound, so use 'an'.

- 4) 'the' is used for specific things.

He wants the pear.

He wants a specific pear.

Parts of a Sentence

Form sentences by putting all the parts together

Put the article, the person or thing doing the action, and the verb together.
