

200 5	You see this article in your local newspaper about the area where you live. New take-away restaurant upsets residents Residents in Oak Lane held a meeting yesterday to discuss what to do about the problems caused by Brown's Fish Bar, a take-away restaurant which has just opened in the area. Local residents have complained about the amount of noise and litter. They say that the noise continues until after midnight and that in the morning there is rubbish in the streets. You agree that the new restaurant has caused serious problems. You decide to write a letter to the council describing the situation, explaining how you feel about it and asking the council to take action.
	Task 3a (About 40 minutes) The Principal of your college, Ms Bellamy, is worried about attendance and punctuality in the college. Many students are often absent from their classes or arrive late for their lessons. You have been at the college for some time so Ms Bellamy has asked you to speak to other students and write a report for her. Write a report for Ms Bellamy: formal letter • explaining why you think some students are often absent • saying why you think some students are often late • suggesting ways in which the college should help students with these problems.
200 6	You see this notice in your college restaurant. College Restaurant Help us to help you! We have noticed many students have stopped using the restaurant recently. We would like to know why students are unhappy with the restaurant and how we can improve our service. Please write with your views to: Philip Smith, Restaurant Manager You decide to write a letter to Mr Smith giving your views.
	Task 3a (About 40 minutes) The local newspaper in the community where you live is planning to publish articles about famous people from different countries. This might be a film star, a politician or another person from the past or present. You decide to write an article for the newspaper about a famous person that you admire. In your article explain what the person did to become famous and say why you admire them. Include any other information that you think would be interesting for the readers of the article.

200 7	You read this notice at college. VOLUNTEERS NEEDED URGENTLY! 50 new students are arriving at college next week. They are 16-18 year olds who are learning English. In the first few days, we would like volunteers to take care of small groups. We want you to welcome them to the college, introduce them to other students and show them around the town. Can you help us? If so, email the head of Student Services explaining why you would like to volunteer and why you are the right person to help. Write an email to the head of Student Services.
200 8	You receive this letter asking for a reference about your friend, Rina. Email Ms Rina Kimar has applied to do voluntary work in our second-hand books and clothes shop in Yeading Road. We are a national charity which raises money for elderly people. Volunteers advise customers, work on the cash desk and organise stock. Rina has given your name as a referee. Please could you tell us: • how well you know her • what she is like as a person • why you think she is suitable for this position.
200 9	You read this notice on your college noticeboard. WHAT CAN OUR COLLEGE DO FOR THE ENVIRONMENT? I think everyone in the college should do more to look after the environment. I would like to hear what students think we could do. How can the college save energy? What sort of things can we recycle in the college? Is there anything else the college can do to help the environment? Please write to me answering these questions and giving examples of what we can do to be more environmentally friendly. Ms Evans College Principal Write a letter to Ms Evans, answering her questions.
201 1	You see this notice in your local shop window. COMMUNITY RADIO NORTH Community Radio North is a local station for the community. We want to make sure our programmes are interesting to people in the local area. Can you help us with ideas? What do people in your community want to listen to? How can the radio help people in your area? We welcome your ideas. Write to me, Joss Collins, Manager of Community Radio North. Write a letter to Joss Collins.