

L1 presentation topics

You are going to start planning a presentation about something you are interested in. This could be a skill you have or something which you spend a lot of time doing. It may be something you read, talk or think about a lot.

Name 3 things you are interested in:

1. ____
2. ____
3. ____

When did you first become interested in these things? Are there any stories to tell about when your interest in these things started? *This will help with your intro/conclusion and will help you show a range of grammar in your speaking. ****

Idea 1 ____

Idea 2 ____

Idea 3 ____

Choose one of the things you wrote above and think about how you would explain it to a person who has no past experience of it. What is the most important information they need to know? Use this space to note down some of your ideas:

L1 presentation topics

Task 3 Presentation and Discussion

You will give a short presentation on a topic of your choice. The topic needs to be agreed with your assessor.

Suitable topics may include: (these are just suggestions from previous exams)

- How to find a good mobile phone contract
- How to follow a recipe
- How to repair something

- How to build something
 - How to prepare for an interview
 - How to make an item of your choice
 - How to use a computer application

- How to look after a pet
 - How to organise a successful party
 - How to play a sport of your choice
 - How to use social networking sites

- How to register for a college course
- An account of your best or worst holiday ever

- An account of a typical day in your life
 - How to have a successful job interview
 - How to use an electronic device of your choice
 - How to make an item of clothing

- How to grow your own vegetables
 - How to decorate a room
 - How to look after a garden
 - How to prepare for an interview
 - How to start a small business
 - How to make an item of your choice

After your presentation, you will take part in a discussion about the topic with the other learners.