Section 3 — Written Responses

1. Why do you want to volunteer at Cardiff Foodbank, and what do you hope to contribute to the charity?

I am keen to volunteer at Cardiff Foodbank because I believe that everyone deserves access to enough food, regardless of their circumstances. Having experienced hardship myself when I first arrived in the United Kingdom, I feel a strong connection to the charity's mission and would like to give something back to the community that supported me. I hope to contribute my time and energy to help the foodbank run smoothly and efficiently.

2. Describe any skills, experience or personal qualities that would make you a good volunteer at a food bank.

One of my key strengths is the ability to work calmly and efficiently as part of a team, which I believe is essential when sorting and packing large quantities of donations. I am able to communicate effectively with people from a variety of backgrounds, as I speak both English and Ukrainian. I am also physically fit and comfortable carrying out practical, hands-on tasks for extended periods.

3. Is there anything else you would like Cardiff Foodbank to know about you before your application is considered?

I am committed to giving my time reliably and am confident that I would be a dedicated member of your team. I am currently in the process of applying for a DBS check, as I understand this may be required for certain volunteering roles. Please let me know if any further information is needed to support my application.

What makes this answer good:

- Section 2 choices are consistent with Section 3 (sorting/packing role, no DBS yet but willing to apply, bilingual English/Ukrainian)
- Personal motivation is genuine and specific, not generic ("having experienced hardship myself" rather than just "it is a good cause")
- Skills mentioned in Q2 directly relate to the chosen role (teamwork and physical tasks for sorting/packing)
- Formal register and topic vocabulary reused naturally from the "useful phrases" list
- No contractions anywhere in the written responses
